

The Guidelines for Applicants to Kanazawa University Short-term Exchange Programs (2018-2019)

These programs are designed for students from the institutions that have an exchange agreement with Kanazawa University* who intend to study at Kanazawa University for a period of more than six months up to one year. While remaining enrolled at their home institutions, they study in a non-degree program at Kanazawa University for the purpose of taking credited classes or participating in independent research under the guidance of a supervisor.

Name of program	Kanazawa University Student Exchange Program (KUSEP)	Kanazawa University Japanese Language and Culture Program	Kanazawa University Human and Social Sciences Short-term Exchange Program	Kanazawa University Semester Program	Kanazawa University Student Exchange Program for Science and Technology (KUEST)
Contents	KUSEP is a short-term program, offering Japanese language classes, as well as classes lectured in English on Japanese culture and aspects of things, and on major subjects. There is no restriction as to the student's major field of study at his/her home institution. Japanese classes which are held 5 times a week and some of the other classes are compulsory. Beside the classes for this program, students with excellent Japanese proficiency are allowed to join in classes for general and professional education with Japanese students. NOTES            1. Students in the field of human and social sciences who hope to pursue their own field of study should apply for Program C.            2. Students in the field of science, engineering, medicine, pharmaceutical sciences and health sciences should apply for Program E.	This program aims to provide students from overseas with an opportunity to improve their proficiency in Japanese language and to deepen their understanding of Japanese culture and society. The program consists of upper-intermediate to advanced level Japanese language courses (5 lectures per week), cultural courses taking up not only present day Japanese society and culture but also the rich traditional culture of Kanazawa (3 lectures per week), joint research project with the Japanese students (1 lecture per week) and a completion research (1 lectures per week).            It is a one year program conducted solely in Japanese.	Students who hope to concentrate on the study of the specialized field are admitted in College of Human and Social Sciences (undergraduate level) or Graduate School of Human and Socio-Environmental Studies at Kanazawa University. They attend classes on the curriculum of Kanazawa University, and/or study in their major fields at a graduate school. The students whose major are human and social sciences are eligible. Since classes are lectured in Japanese, high proficiency in Japanese is required in order to attend classes. However, if they wish to pursue their research in the graduate school, they can be instructed in English.	The Semester Program is a half-year program with credit transfer. There is no restriction as to the student's major(s) at his/her home institution. This program mainly offers courses on the Japanese language, and Japanese culture and society. 5 Japanese classes per week are compulsory, in addition to some of the Japanese culture and society class meetings. Besides, depending on his/her proficiency in Japanese, the student is eligible to enroll in courses that are given throughout the university, including both general education courses and courses in various different fields of research.	KUEST is a short-term program, offering research activity at a laboratory, Japanese language classes, as well as classes lectured in English on major subjects and on Japanese culture. Students in natural science such as environmental engineering, biology and civil engineering are eligible. Students will do their research in a laboratory. Japanese classes and some of the other classes are compulsory.

Matters on
Kanazawa
University
Short-term
Exchange
Programs

8. Living Expenses

Standard monthly living expenses in Kanazawa can be considered to be from around 80,000 to 100,000 yen. Please be sure to prepare enough money to cover his/her living expenses during the study period.

(Details)

- Rent 30,000 to 50,000 yen
- Electricity, water, and other utilities about 10,000 yen
- Health insurance 1,600 yen
- Food expenses 25,000 to 30,000 yen
- Miscellaneous expenses 30,000 to 40,000 yen

9. National Health Insurance

All students are required to join the National Health Insurance. It costs about 1,500 yen per month. This insurance covers about 70% of charges for medical care and hospitalization.

10. Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research

All students are required to join the Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research. It costs 1,000 yen per year. This insurance helps students against physical injuries arising from unexpected accidents during their educational and research activities.

11. Liability Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research

All Students of Program A, B, D and E are required to join the Liability Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research. It costs 340 yen per year. This insurance covers compensation for damages caused during regular curricular activities, school events, extracurricular activities and commuting to and from them.

12. Immigration to Japan

There are certain formalities that must be observed by international students intending to pursue studies in Japan. Students should possess a valid passport issued by their home country. They are also required to apply to their nearest Japanese diplomatic mission (embassy or consulate) for a "College Student" visa. A "College Student" visa will only be issued after the diplomatic mission is in possession of the applicant's "Certificate of Eligibility". However, Japanese Government Scholarship students do not need such a certificate. The Student Affairs Division of Kanazawa University shall submit the applications for the "Certificate of Eligibility" to the immigration office at Kanazawa on behalf of the exchange students. The "Certificate of Eligibility" will then be sent to the students. When applying for the visa, students must take the "Certificate of Eligibility" and their passport to the diplomatic mission. Students should also be sure to bring the "Certificate of Eligibility" with them and show it to the airport authorities when they enter Japan.
